We need your help! We are hosting a series of forums to ask you, veterans and service members in southwestern Pennsylvania, what resources and opportunities you need and want to make your lives the best they can be. Why come? You get asked to do a lot of things. This event is worthy of your time. It is your chance to be heard and be part of a discussion that will shape how this region supports military men and women for years to come. We'll be there. We'll be listening. We hope to see you! Questions? Call (412) 254-4820

Food will be provided.
