ORCHARD PARK CONSTRUCTION UNDERWAY IN DUQUESNE

With All PHFA, State, County and tax credit funding in place and the Ground-breaking Ceremony having been held in July, construction is officially underway on the new community of Orchard Park in Duquesne, PA.

As planned by the ACHA and Falbo-Pennrose, in association with WRT Architects, Fahringer, McCarty, & Grey, Inc., Mistick Construction, and the City of Duquesne, 44 Units housed in 22 new duplex buildings are being built on the former Burns Heights site. The new development also includes a free standing community building.

The removal of 45,000 tons of coal - an initial part of the process - has been completed and the excavation company has de-mobilized. Actual construction began in November of 2014. As of January 2014, all of the concrete pads for the buildings were completed. Most of the buildings are already framed and some are under roof. Bob Pacacha – ACHA Construction Manager on this project stated, “Finishes are coming out beautifully. Another job the ACHA can be proud of.”

PERSPECTIVES

by the ACHA
Executive Director
Frank Aggazio

As we are well into 2015, there are a number of construction projects that we look forward to completing: First and foremost is new construction of the Orchard Park development in Duquesne where the first families should be moving in by June 2015. The development has a unique working preference feature.

The other projects include the completion of the Truman Tower modernization and completion of the remaining apartments at General Braddock Tower. The final phase of Sheldon Park Exterior Improvements will soon be underway.

Occupancy of public housing units and leasing of HCVP units is a top priority of the ACHA. We need to serve as many eligible families as possible. When units are vacant and not leased the Housing Authority does not receive funding. This is extremely critical in these very tough federal funding times.

Special congratulations to the Housing Choice Voucher Program (HCVP) Department for another outstanding high-performer score! And "Hats-Off!" to the Facilities Management and the Housing Management & Operations (HMO) departments for scoring a 36 out of 40 in the physical condition of our housing stock.

In these difficult budget times it is critical to get a good effort from everyone. THANK YOU for all of your hard work and dedication to residents of the ACHA.

temporary office space for unit leasing services, Construction Management, and the Mon Valley Initiative Workforce Development staff. Given that Orchard Park will house those with a working preference, it is important to provide counseling through a supportive service program to former or prospective residents that will enhance educational and employment opportunities. In addition to this building, the new on-site Community Building will permanently house the Management Office and maintenance facilities as well as supportive service programs to further assist residents with education and employment opportunities.

ACHA JOINS "BOOT CAMP" CHALLENGE

In July of 2014 County Executive Rich Fitzgerald and Mayor Bill Peduto committed to President Obama's goal to end veteran homelessness by December 2015. The first step was to engage in a housing Boot Camp on August 8, 2014 that partnered agencies such as the VA, Allegheny County Continuum of Care, HUD, local Housing Authorities and an array of others. On this day it was determined the Boot Camp would house 135 homeless veterans in 100 days and through a tireless intense joint effort, the Boot Camp goal was not only obtained but exceeded. Pictured is the press conference acknowledging the success of the Boot Camp.

The Boot Camp has committed to another 100 days of housing 135 homeless veterans and will do so until President Obama's goal is achieved. Mr. Aggazio and the Allegheny County Housing Authority respectfully extends heartfelt thanks to the collaboration of Boot Camp members for their cooperation and partnership in this honorable cause.  ~ Robert Gabbianelli

GENERAL BRADDOCK TOWER - STANDING TALL AGAIN

General Braddock Tower has gone through three phases of construction and is now to begin a fourth. The first phase dealt with reclaiming the 10th, 11th and 12th floor units as well as introducing a new HVAC system, exterior improvements including a crowning new cornice and landscaping. The second deals with new windows and exterior lighting, while the third introduces a new chiller to the HVAC system providing the residents with unit controlled air-conditioning. The fourth phase will take the unit improvements through the remaining floors of the building.

Chuck Stohlberg, the ACHA Construction Manager stated that the initial work schedule might have presented a difficult time for the residents, but they were found to be quite helpful. Also, the new mechanical system and windows have made an immense improvement to the building's environment and the new overall look of the building is pleasing to the residents.

TRUMAN MODERNIZATION

The news at Harry S. Truman Apartments regarding construction progress is encouraging as the contractors (Moret Construction, Merante Plumbing, Merit Electrical Group and Controlled Climate Systems) work their way down through the building.

Initially the building received asbestos abatement of floors and ceilings, necessitating the relocation of all residents within the building. This however provided a much easier circumstance to perform the work which includes the replacement of existing waste stacks which then ties into improving the apartments as well as the common areas with new kitchens and baths, flooring and paint. Additionally, HVAC and electrical upgrades as well as a new cornice, entrance and landscaping are included.

At this time, the seventh and sixth floors are being painted while drywall installation is being completed on the fifth, fourth and third floors. Of note are the new cornice and entrance canopy, which have been designed by McLean Architects to give the building an attractive entryway as well as a distinctive identity within the community.

Ruth has volunteered many hours of her personal time to refinishing cushions, as well as making pillows and curtains for the coffee room.

SHELDON PARK IMPROVEMENTS

The ACHA is about to enter the third phase of exterior improvements to the 45 buildings at Sheldon Park. The first phase began in 2012. These improvements comprise brick repair, new insulation in crawlspaces, totally sealed LED lighting on porches, new roofing, windows and entrance canopies as well as new 100 square foot concrete patios.

Upstreet Architects worked with ACHA to develop unique roof overhang and bracketing details as well as colorful siding and picture framed windows to solve the initial problem of water infiltrating the dwelling units giving the buildings a cottage-like scale more appropriate to their park-like setting.

Additionally, the Lloyd Hayden Community Center has recently received upgrades of a new roof and HVAC rooftop unit.  ~ Andrew Jamrom

ORCHARD PARK SECTION 3 JOB RECRUITMENT

The Allegheny County Housing Authority and Mistick Construction sponsored a job recruitment session on August 19, 2014 at the Boys and Girls Club in Duquesne. Notices were posted in the Duquesne Post Office, local supermarket, Boys and Girls Clubs and mass mailings to all former residents of the Burns Heights Community.

There were 48 applicants in attendance at the recruitment session. The first portion of the session consisted of ACHA and Mistick staff going over site drawings and the construction process taking place at the Orchard Park Development. For the next portion of the recruitment session, Section 3 applicants completed applications. ACHA's Kim Evans, Section 3 /MWDBE Coordinator and Mistick's Roxanne Thomas, Section 3 Coordinator conducted one on one interviews with Section 3 applicants to determine skills and also discuss training opportunities. A total of 64 Section 3 Resident job applications were received from Duquesne and surrounding areas.

ACHA's Section 3 Coordinator and Mistick's Section 3 Coordinator had various meetings conference calls with contractors and subcontractors to schedule interviews and drug testing for section 3 Applicants. We scheduled 41 interviews over the four month period. To date we have 17 Section 3 workers hired on this construction site. Our hope is that once completed the contractors/sub-contractors will retain the new hires to work on other contracts with them.

The applicants were tiered as follows; former Burns Heights Residents, Duquesne Residents and then the residents from the surrounding areas.

ACHA's goals are to increase Section 3 participation on all of our job sites promoting self- sufficiency, advancement and training opportunities to the communities and Section 3 contract compliance.  ~ Kim Evans
